

The Front Porch is more than just a place—it's an invitation to Gather for Good. Nestled on Walnut Grove Road near Perkins in East Memphis, this welcoming space is designed for the Greater Memphis community to come together—to work, play, rest, renew and restore. Whether building connections, fostering collaboration, or simply finding a moment of peace, The Front Porch is a center of hospitality for people of all ages, faiths, and backgrounds, dedicated to making Memphis an even greater place for everyone.

Featuring:

- 7,777 square foot glass building
- Long and inviting veranda with rocking chairs for outdoor conversations
- Second Helpings Café open Monday–Saturday to the public
- Event Venue and Meeting Room available for use
- Dedicated Office Space available for use to be shared with Milla's House, one of Baptist's Center for Good Grief programs and the Christian Psychological Center
- Intentional Monthly Programming including outdoor concerts, speakers, family events and more
